ATTENDED THE BALL.

Sixty or more members of Portsmouth society went over to the navy yard on Saturday evening to attend a ball given in the ordnance building by the officers of the marine corps. It proved a very pleasant occasion for all concerned. Some of the toilets were of more than ordinary elaboration.

ANOTHER CRIME.

May Be Charged to Edward Graffam.

Startling Statement Comes From A Tramp In Saco.

Sheriff Pearson Of Portland Will Investigate The Matter This Morning.

SACO, Me., March 17.—A startling statement was made today by Isaac Richards, a tramp, who applied at the police station for lodging last night, which, if true, places another crime at the door of Edward Graffam, now in Portland jail for the murder of Clifford Mosher in Gorham, N. H., early in the winter, and clears the mystery that has been surrounding the death of Byron G. Coburn, whose body was found beside the road in Gorham several years ago. Richards says that several years ago he and Graffam were tramping together and shortly after the Coburn murder, Graffam confessed that he did it. When asked what motive Graffam said he had for the crime, Richards replied, "For his money." This is all he would say about it. This statement of Richards was made to an Associated Press correspondent in the presence of two police officers. Sheriff Pearson of Portland has been notified of it and will interview the tramp tomorrow morning. At the time Coburn was found dead, it was thought that Graffam knew something about it, but no evidence has ever been brought against him.

GENERAL HARRISON'S FUNERAL.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 17.—Surrounded by about fifteen thousand of his fellow citizens, the body of General Benjamin Harrison was buried this afternoon in the family lot in Crown Hill cemetery. Close by the grave were assembled the family, President McKinley and other distinguished men and close friends of General Harrison. Fifty yards back, behind ropes guarded by policemen, stood a great multitude with uncovered heads. The services at the church and the grave were simple in the extreme. Everything was in excellent taste and there was an utter absence of any friction. At the house, Rev. Dr. Haines read a short passage of scripture and delivered a short eulogy, as did Rev. Dr. Niccol, of St. Luke's. The service closed with a brief prayer by Rev. Dr. Haines. From the house the body was borne to the church and while the carriages were discharging the occupants at the church door, a fire engine came down the street at top speed directly toward the crowd. The people made wild rushes in every direction, to avoid the danger, but the driver showed great skill in handling his horses and nobody was injured. President McKinley was half way between the sidewalk and the church when the commotion attracted his attention. He stopped with anxiety on his face, until the stir was over, and then resumed his walk to the church. The services in the church were conducted by Rev. Drs. Haines and Niccol, and the singing consisted of hymns by the choir and a baritone solo in which the choir joined in the chorus.

A DISASTROUS PASSAGE.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The steamship New York arrived at her dock at ten o'clock tonight, after a passage during which the explosion of an ammonia tank and the breaking of a shaft caused loss of life and considerable damage. Fifteen men were overcome by the fumes of the ammonia on Thursday morning and two deaths resulted. The victims were John Kent, a steward, and Carl Eggkvist, an American citizen who was a steerage passenger. S. Colston, another steward, is still suffering with inflammation of the lungs and was taken to a hospital.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Forecast for New England: Fair Monday, winds becoming east, fresh to brisk on the coast; Tuesday probably fair.

DOINGS IN CHINA.

The Mask Thrown Off.

LONDON, March 18, 2.00 a. m.—Dr. Morrison, writing to the Times from Peking, says: "Russia, by refusing to support the powers in their demand for the punishment of the guilty officials, has finally thrown off the mask. Her plea for leniency is hardly serious, coming from a power whose troops have been guilty of reprisals upon the Chinese scarcely less ferocious than those of the Boxers. Russia's policy is to hedge uncertainty on the one hand, and to threaten and threaten on the other."

Li Hung Chang's Health

PEKIN, March 17.—The health of Li Hung Chang is again a matter of grave consideration with the foreign ministers. Mr. Rockhill, who visited him yesterday, says that he is a physical wreck and seems in a state of utter collapse, although mentally as brilliant as ever. Mr. Rockhill would not be surprised to learn of his death at any time. The removal of Li Hung Chang, by sickness or any other cause, would be very unfortunate at just this time.

HE IS WILLING TO RACE.

NEW YORK, March 17.—John J. Scanlan, owner of The Abbot, has issued an answer to Thomas W. Lawson's proposition to race Borahma against The Abbot. Mr. Scanlan says: "In reply, I will accept the proposition, if the owner of Borahma will eliminate the unheard of and unusual condition that the added money shall go to some Boston charity, to be designated by him, whether his horse wins or not. I am a New Yorker and if The Abbot should win, I should prefer giving the money to a New York charity or having some voice in its disposition. If the owner of Borahma honestly wants a race, I am ready to meet him on the usual sportsmanlike terms, with no restrictions whatever, for $25,000—$10,000 to be posted now, $5000 on July 1st and $10,000 on the night before the race—all to be defaulted by the horse that fails to appear on the track. The race shall take place in September, on the track offering the best inducements, the winner to take all proceeds outside the stake."

PROBABLY TOOK POISON.

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 17.—Edward Matthieu of North Lawrence, Mass., died here this afternoon at the home of Louis Portier, under circumstances which indicate that he had taken poison. Matthieu came here on Friday, had been under the influence of liquor and was sick. This morning a doctor was sent for and left him some tablets. Later Matthieu was found dead in bed. The coroner will determine tomorrow morning if an inquest is necessary.

A FIREMAN KILLED.

PITTSBURG, March 17.—During a fire here today, one fireman lost his life and three others were badly hurt. The property loss is fully $250,000. The Exposition building was partly destroyed, entailing a loss of about $100,000, and the other sufferers are Hiram French, hairfelt factory, and Gallagher & Bunker and Henry Hank, lumber dealers.

EDITOR DONAHUE DEAD.

BOSTON, March 18th.—Patrick Donahue, best known as the editor of the Boston Pilot, and who reached the ninetieth anniversary of his birth yesterday, died at one o'clock this morning. He passed into a comatose state last Friday and had since been practically unconscious, with occasional few moments of sensibility.

DE WET'S COMMANDO DISSOLVES.

Cape Town, March 17.—De Wet's commando has broken up at Senekal, in the Orange River colony.

WAY DOWN EAST.

Those who have seen The Old Homestead and Shore Acres pronounce Way Down East, a play of a higher standard. The same production of this famous drama, that for an entire two seasons enthralled New York, is to be given a return date at Music Hall Wednesday evening, March 20th. It is said to possess all the elements of enduring popularity, appeals to all classes and both sexes. It will be given with a strong company, complete scenery and some of the most novel mechanical effects ever seen on any stage.

YORK COUNTY FINANCES.

Figures of Interest to Citizens of Kittery, York and Eliot in the State.

The financial statement of York county for 1900 has just been issued, according to law, in a very neatly printed report from the press of the Biddeford Journal. The following figures of interest to Herald readers in Kittery, York and Eliot have been selected:

The tax is apportioned in the three towns as follows: Kittery, $905 13, York, $1,914 21; Eliot $564 44. County justice of the peace: S. B. Neal, Kittery. Warrants, $51.71; G. W. S. Putnam, York, two liquor warrants, $5 74 and other warrants, $25.39.

The only county officer for the year is S. W. Jenkins of York Corner, who is one of the county commissioners.

CHARMING BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Marguerite, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar D. Stoddard, Hanover street, celebrated the eighth anniversary of her birth, on Saturday, by entertaining about a score of her friends at her home. The anniversary proper does not arrive until today, but as Saturday was a school holiday for the young folks, it was selected for the party.

The hostess was the recipient of many valuable remembrances. Various games were played and a fine supper was served that comprised many dainties. The centerpiece of the table was a beautiful birthday cake.

Among those present were the following: Blanche Fisher, Dorothy Perry, Florence Ward, Gretchen Hett, Guida Hopkins, Emma and Beatrice Hartford, Marie Brewster, Marie Philbrick, Barbara Flanagan, Ada Muchmore, Dorothy Bell, Mignon Tucker, Helen Tucker, May Melton.

HOYT'S A BUNCH OF KEYS AT MUSIC HALL TONIGHT.

SPECIAL MEETING.

A special meeting of East Rockingham Pomeroy grange will be held with Hampton Falls grange Wednesday, beginning at 10 a. m., when the fifth degree will be worked and action will be taken in regard to the annual field meet, which is to occur at Hampton beach on July 31.

The public session will begin at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, to which all are cordially invited. There will be an address by Professors Burkett of New Hampshire college, and a discussion of "Why Do You Favor the Introduction of Nature Studies Into Our Public Schools, and What Can We Do to Secure It?" by Prof. George N. Cross of the Robinson seminary, Exeter, and other prominent speakers.

Four lady members will debate the question "Resolved, That success depends more upon character than upon conditions." The exercises will be interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.

Second Time on Earth

No Boils Nor Carbuncles Now—A Good Blood Medicine.

"I became convinced of the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla when I took it myself as a blood purifier. So, when my husband had boils and carbuncles I urged him to take Hood's and the result was that when he had used but one bottle the boils had nearly all disappeared.

He continued the use of the medicine and after taking two bottles he was completely cured, and, as he expressed it, felt as if he was on earth for the second time. He has never had any boils since. We take Hood's as a spring medicine and gladly drink it." Mrs. A. E. STAYBEE, Yonkers, N. Y.

Scrofula from Birth.

"I have found Hood's to be the greatest blood purifier I ever took, and I have tried many medicines. I was a sufferer with scrofula from birth. My eyes were so badly affected I would be almost blind for a week at a time. My neck began to swell so that I could not breathe freely. Medicines failed to do me any good until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Today I have excellent health and my eyes give me very little trouble. I owe it all to Hood's, which I recommend to all suffering from any disease of the blood." Miss KETTIE McGUINN, Silver Creek, Ky.

That Tired Feeling.

"I cannot say too much for Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for that tired and worn out feeling one has in the spring. As a strength builder and appetite creator it has no equal." Mrs. L. B. WOODARD, 285 Ballou Street, Woonsocket, R. I.

Hood's is peculiar to itself.

PICKUPS AT RANDOM.

T (HAT twenty thousand dollars recommended by the legislative committee on appropriations for the shore boulevard will be quite a boost for the project.

Although not as much as was desired by those who have been boasting the road, still it is a sum that will go a considerable way, if judiciously put out. Everybody here is glad the boulevard is finding such encouragement among the legislators up the state.

There is a Boston and Maine conductor who is rather short in stature and of slight build. One day recently a passenger on his train took a paper from the news agent and tendered a two dollar bill. "Newby" couldn't change it, but told the customer that he would bring it later. After passing several stations, the newsboy had failed to show up with the money. The conductor came through the train and the passenger did not look up or take his nose out of his paper, so he mistook the official for the newsboy. "Here," he shouted, "where's my change for that two dollar bill?" "You didn't give me two dollars," replied the diminutive conductor. The passenger intimated in strong language that the other was mistaken, but glancing up, he read "Conductor" on his cap and then it was up to him to make an apology, which he did very humbly.

Do you chew gum? If you do, it will probably interest you (and may cause you considerable concern) to learn that the supply of spruce gum from the Maine woods is fast diminishing. The clear amber-tinted life blood of the black spruce is getting to be an expensive luxury. The city factories now are turning out large quantities of artificial gum, made from bitumen, pitch and paraffine and flavored with many beguiling essences.

Carrie Nation in her newspaper has a department called "Letters From Hell." In the old lady faking, or has she scooped a correspondent in Hadee?

The Concord People and Patriot says:

"The Portsmouth police department is to be equipped with a modern patrol wagon and an ambulance."

Stale news. Why, the ambulance is so old now that it has actually been ordered washed by a vote of the board of mayor and aldermen.

I hope we shall have a good amateur base ball team here this year. The city ought to be represented on the diamond, for there is plenty of talent here that might be merged into a smart organization, and make Dover, Newburyport and a few other neighboring cities hustle. It is time that the matter was taken in hand by some enterprising man with a true love for the great national game.

NAVAL VESSELS' MOVEMENTS.

The training ship Adams has arrived at San Francisco, the training ship Mexican at San Diego, the collier Hannibal at Lambert's Point, and the training ship Lancaster at Boston. The collier Nanhan has sailed from Woosung for Hongkong. The collier Asia (formerly the Seinde) has been ordered out of commission at Norfolk. The collier Brutus, now on the Asiatic station, has been ordered to the United States.

The North Atlantic squadron will leave Pensacola for Culebra island, near Porto Rico, on March 19 for a series of tactical drills and target practice. The battleship Kearsarge will go with the squadron to Culebra island and some time next month will proceed to New York to have one of her 13-inch guns removed and another substituted.

This gun was injured by the premature explosion of a shell in the breech.

OUR FISHING INTERESTS.

The New Lobster Laws of Interest to
This Section of the State.

Through the efforts of the senator from this district, the following bill has been started in the legislature, was read a first and second time in the senate and on further motion, the rules were further unanimously suspended, and the bill ordered to be passed its third reading and sent down to the house of representatives for concurrence:

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the Year of our Lord, 1901.

Whereas, the states of Maine and Massachusetts have enacted legislation defining the length of lobsters as to the inches which may be legally taken from the waters of said states, and in order that the law of New Hampshire on that point may be the same as that of said states, therefore,

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives in general court convened:

Sec. 1. If any person shall catch, preserve, sell or expose for sale within this state any lobsters under 4 inches in length, measuring from one extreme of the body to the other, exclusive of claws or feelers, at any time, or shall kill or destroy any female lobster while carrying her spawn, he shall be fined ten dollars ($10) for each lobster so caught, killed or sold, preserved or exposed for sale.

Sec. 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed and this act shall take effect upon its passage.

It seems curious that almost on the same day that the above was enacted in our state separate the Massachusetts legislature still further reduced the size of lobsters that may be legally taken in her waters.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

The Controversy in the Legislature
Over the New Lobster Law.

The Portsmouth Times of last week contained the following items of much interest to this locality. The first is as follows:

Passed a Lobster Law.

"The legislature of Massachusetts has passed a lobster law making the length of lobsters 9 1-2 inches, the same as in Ihode Island. As the New Hampshire law makes 10 1-2 inches as the legal length of a lobster here, the result will be that all the lobsters caught on the New Hampshire coast will be shipped to Boston."

The second item, referring to the proceedings of Wednesday last in the New Hampshire senate upon the same subject matter, and to the plucky and per-severant efforts of the senator from this district to place both the fishermen and the lobster consumer on as nearly as possible an equality with those of our joining states, is herewith quoted verbatim as follows:

"In the afternoon the senate was in session some time and got over a large amount of routine business. The bill revising the fish and game laws of the state was the subject of considerable controversy. Senator Urich in particular making a "big kick" in reference to the short lobster provision, which he sought to have amended, but the bill was finally passed without change."

Now we find by the subsequent lengthy reports in both the Concord and Manchester papers, relating to this "big kick" of Senator Urich in his laudable efforts to amend this bill, that the "big kick" resulted in another absolute victory for the senator.

Although after repeated divisions and roll calls the senator from this district found himself supported by only a very insignificant minority, yet the senate as a whole was convinced of the utter impossibility of getting the bill through another reading that night—and perhaps not at all—unless the demands of the Portsmouth senator were in some way complied with.

This was effected after repeated parleys had during the debate and the year and nay calls, by which it was agreed that Senator Urich should at the next morning session introduce, without objection, a new bill covering all his objections to the bill then pending and under debate.

That the New Hampshire senate were faithful to their agreement and to their obligations from this district is shown by the records of that body on Thursday morning following Wednesday evening's hot and lengthy parliamentary sparring and debate.

SUBIG BAY RECOMMENDED.

Sight for Naval Station—Fight Over Land for Charleston Yard.

Secretary Long has referred to the general board, of which Admiral Dewey is president, the report of the board which recommended Subig bay for a naval station in the Philippines. There is no doubt that the board will approve the recommendation. Bids have been opened by the engineer department of the army for dredging Pearl harbor, Hawaii, where an important naval station is to be established.

Difficulty is being experienced by Rear Admiral Endicott, chief of the bureau of yards and docks, in purchasing, at a reasonable price, land at Charle-ton for the naval station to be established there. The owner of 170 acres is holding out for $400 an acre, while two boards have reported that $200 was a liberal price. Compensation proceedings will be instituted unless the owner agrees to the government price.

OGUNQUIT.

Reuben M. Dorrell, well-known resident of this village, died at his home, Friday, March 8, aged about sixty-seven years. He is survived by a wife and four daughters. The funeral services were held Monday at his late home, the Rev. N. T. Ridlon of the Christian church officiating. A delegation from Eagle Lodge, No. 47, I. O. O. F., were in attendance. Interment was in the family lot in the cemetery at Wells village.

E. J. F. Littlefield returned to Portsmouth Sunday evening, having spent Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Martha Maxwell, wife of Albert
R. Maxwell of this village, died at her home on Thursday night aged sixty-nine years and ten months. She is survived by her husband and two sons, Barak A. and Henry L. The funeral was held at the home on Sunday. Rev.
N. M. Bailey of the First Congregational church conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Ridlon and Rev. Mr.
Stanley. Mrs. Maxwell was a very esteemed lady and loved by all.

Owing to the failure of the two factions of the republicans in town to come to some agreement, the Mitchell faction has called a caucus at Golden Cross hall, Kittery Point, at the same hour for which means that there will be opposition elec-

THINGS IN THE LADRONES.

Queer Food and Other Xanadu Products of the Islands.

The queer things in the Ladrones include a tree the fruit of which is so obnoxious to the nostrils that a man cannot "keep his stomach" and smell it. But once past the nose it is so delicious that he will eat until too full to walk. This fruit ripens once a month and is plentiful.

A nut which can be eaten shell and all is another queer product. The shell is brittle like a cracker, sweet and good. The inside has a kernel which can only be bitten when the fruit is fresh.

Another fruit is so rare that it is used as a coin.

A very queer mineral product is a stone which changes color in the atmosphere. Cold days it is black, hot days it is bright red, when rain threatens it is pinkish, and in cloudy weather it is blue. This stone lies on the highways, and the pedestrian can forecast his own weather.

A great yellow flower which opens and closes to the sun at noon is another novelty. This flower takes only five minutes to open and shut. For one minute it is wide open, showing a white center with golden heart. It opens directly up to the sun and closes tight with drooping head. It varies not one minute in the whole lifetime of the plant. On cloudy days it opens, but its petals point downward, for the stems do not rise as on sunny days. This flower acts as a clock to the natives. The domestic animal of the Ladrones is a small bird called "laughing donkey." It laughs like a parrot, but has projections at the side of its head which give rise to the name. Another household pet is the Japanese poodle, which is very small and very curly-haired. This dog catches its own fish in the lagoons and eats fruit from the guava tree.

The man who owns a farm in the Ladrones is a rich man, for he can support life without labor. Breadfruit trees grow wild and with the coconuts are the shade trees of the island. A grove of breadfruit trees to a Ladroner islander is what a herd of western cattle is to a ranchman. Fruit grows all the year round, and every quality of queer edible tropical fruit is found there.

A very valuable possession is the palm grove, which extends in a belt all across the islands. This grove consists of palm trees which rise side by side close together that you can hardly, except for the slenderness of the trunks of the trees, penetrate into the depths of the palm forest. They grow vegetable ivory, which in commerce is as good as the elephant tusk. This ivory can be used in all cases that do not call for great durability, and for ornaments it cannot be surpassed.—Richmond Times.

MARDI GRAS BALLS OF YORE.
Slaves Bearing Lanterns Led the Elégant Creoles to the Dance.

"The Mardi Gras balls in the early days were held in the first New Orleans Opera House, and since then in the present one, which today is historic," writes Harryde Hallmark in "The Ladies' Home Journal of the social life of New Orleans. "Then, as now, the floor of the Opera House was given over to the dancers. The refreshments consisted of orange flower arrangements with water and sugar and served with homemade cake. All the ladies liked to the place of entertainment. They could not ride because the streets were so narrow and the guitars so wide that carriages would probably have broken down."

"On such evenings in the old days the town was given over to the laughing groups of stately governed women who brought over with them from Paris their silk frocks and their jeweled snuffboxes, and who kept Madame Sophie for their dressmaker. In front of each group of slender young women were African slaves holding lanterns by whose dim light the merry groups found their way. Behind the men slaves came the woman slaves, bearing the satin slippers of their mistresses in their hands."

The word "belt," therefore, the French writer insists, was the cause of the loss of many lives in the Bourgogne disaster.

Domestic Animals Bring Infection.

Evidence that colds are infectious is furnished by what we observe among our domestic animals. Cats seem to be specially susceptible. Probably they often bring home from their nocturnal rambles those mysterious catarrhal attacks which so rapidly run through the house. It is an old saying, "The cat is sneezing; we shall all have colds."

Sheep, too, are liable. A whole flock may suffer and may show that curious eruption round the lips (herpes labialis) which we all know only too well as one of the most unpleasant accompaniments of a bad cold in the head.

On the Australian sheep runs, when the shearing season comes round, the men who congregate at the sheds are frequently smitten with an illness of a catarrhal nature, which rapidly takes hold of them and often affects some 90 per cent. Sometimes it becomes very serious and may even develop into a fatal pneumonia. To all appearance it is caught from the sheep.—Speculator.

His Mean Revenge.

She was one of the aggressive kind, and she undertook to elbow and push her way to the front of the crowd that was leaving the car.

He was a mild mannered little fellow and did not seem to resent it at all when her elbow dug into him as she went by. Nevertheless he was a "resourceful man" and he had his revenge.

"I should not think," he said to his companion, "a ton that could be borne by every one near, "that a woman whose gown showed a gaping placket would be anxious for a position in front of the crowd."

Of course his wife had put him up to it, but the aggressive woman did not know that, and three minutes later she was the last one off.—Chicago Post.

A Turk Who Wanted to Know.

He was a very wealthy landlord and a descendant of the old sultans of Marsh and Ablistan. He would ask us every question under the sun—from the history of the royal family to the views of the English on matrimony; whether England was smaller than London, and which belonged to France; how much bigger the Turkish fleet was than the combined armaments of England, France and Russia, and what was the fashionable costume of the day.

We drew elaborate maps of the world for his benefit on paper 6 inches by 8 inches and the most artistic and faithful portraits of trains, steamers, and hand-carts. And I think I may say with perfect confidence that, after gravely discussing our statements with his servants and neighbors, he disbelieved them all with perfect impartiality.—"Notes From a Diary in Asiatic Turkey."

Royal Diplomatuer.

The Duke of Connacht is a rigid disciplinarian even in his own home circle, and punctuality is one of his great points. On one occasion he had arranged to attend a military entertainment with the duke and his daughters. They were to start in the carriage at a certain time, but when their parents and the carriage were ready the young ladies had not finished dressing. The duke refused to wait, and as the duchess would not go without them he went off alone.

What Queen's Funeral Cost.

London, March 15.—The civil service supplementary estimates show that the expenses in connection with Queen Victoria's funeral amounted to £35,000, of which sum £1,400 was expended for the housing and entertainment of foreign guests.

Three out of every 100 English speaking people have red hair.

HIS IDEA OF TIME.

"Don't wish for the time to fly so fast," says old man. "Why, it isn't a day since your mother and I, with sweethearts, sat for the blessing of May." Hence we stood out here by the garden gate as happy as hearts could be. And I foolish her—just we fool 'em all—into keeping the house for me!

"Don't wish for the time to fly so fast," says old man. "It was yesterday that we, with the wrinkles on frosty locks, started to be far away. There was birds in the mornin singin, an blue in bright wuz the sky. But the evenin bells wuz ringin 'fore the bird wuz 'peared to die!

"Don't wish for the time to fly so fast—it's fast enough, God knows! Like a drop of dew on the daisy it shines in the light an goes. Life's like a dream that passes away with the evenin light. 'Fore it's time to say 'Good night,'

TEETH IN A PUBLIC SCHOOL.

What a Visitor Learned—The Principal is Wiser Too.

The visitor was being conducted through the large public school building by its proud woman principal. His introduction to a class was something like this:

"Oh, see all the little girls! Busy children! Happy? Now, why do you come to school? Truly, you don't like to?" A little giggle was the affirmative answer.

"Now, children, I think you said you had little pieces to say. What little girl will say a piece?"

Ferry hands were up at once, and ten more a little later.

"That little girl."

A 7-year-old in checked pinafore rose and, making a little bow, which made her two golden pigtail fly around amazingly, began, "How doth er 'tith butthy bee im- profit earth thinning hour?"

And the next little girl lisped in the same way about the acorn, and another about the field daisy and the buttercup.

"My children, you all lisped," suggested the principal.

"Yeth, ma'am," said one; "thath becaus we havn't all our teeth." And a finger pointed to the place where two front ones ought to be.

"Oh!" said the principal. "How many little girls have lost teeth—baby teeth?" Forty-two out of 50 children held up their hands. Only eight had all their teeth.

"Now, why do you lose your teeth?" asked the principal.

"Sooth to get big outh," was the answer.

"How many kinds of teeth do you have?" asked the principal. All numbers were given.

"Yes, three," said the principal. "What is the third kind?"

"The kindth you keep in a glass," was the answer.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Fatal "Belts."

A vivid illustration of the power of mere words over human beings is noted by a thoughtful French writer, Franscise Sarcy. He says that after the wreck of the steamship Bourgogne many passengers were found floating, drowned, with life preservers.

The life preservers were fastened upon the bodies, but were fastened around the belts instead of under the arms, and the greater weight of the upper part of the body had tipped the head under water and the person was infallibly drowned.

Now, the greater number of the persons so drowned were French, and the French term for a life preserver is "ceinture de sauvetage," or "life saving belt." This word "ceinture" suggests to the mind, in moments of disorder and unreddiness such as a great catastrophe brings, the idea of putting on a belt, and as a belt is put around the waist and nowhere else the frightened person instinctively adjusts the life preserver close about the hips. The result is that as soon as the person so provided falls into the water his body tips over, with the heavier portion downward, and the head is plunged beneath the surface.

The word "belt," therefore, the French writer insists, was the cause of many lives in the Bourgogne disaster.

IT TEACHES THAT THERE CAN NOT BE ONE LAW FOR THE MAN AND ANOTHER FOR THE WOMAN.

THE TONE OF THE PLAY IS PURE AND SWEET AND SHOWS HOW GOD-LIKE IS HUMANITY WHEN AT ITS BEST.

I SHOULD BE GLAD IF EVERY MEMBER OF MY CONGREGATION MIGHT SEE THE PLAY AND LEARN ITS LESSON.

I AM A STRONGER MAN THAN I WAS BEFORE I SAW IT.

He Accepted the Apology.

A prominent New York lawyer is noted for his ready answers and skill in repartee. When a young practitioner he appeared before a pompous old judge who took offense at a remark the lawyer made criticalizing his decision.

"If you do not instantly apologize for that remark, Mr. Blank," said the judge, "I shall commit you for contempt of court."

"Upon reflection, your honor," instantly replied Mr. Blank, "I find that your honor was right and I was wrong, as your honor always is."

The judge looked dubious, but finally said that he would accept the apology.

SUPREME IN ITS BEAUTY

The Pan-American Exposition to Be a Magnificent Surprise.

Will Surpass in Beauty and Worth All Previous Affairs

How Portsmouth Folks Can Go to Buffalo Free of Expense

There is no doubt but the Pan-American exposition will be the greatest exhibition ever held. It will surpass anything ever attempted in this line.

The Herald had this in view when it made the liberal offer to its readers. The trip to this gigantic fair will be one that will ever be remembered. To make the trip free of expense is worth the effort of the popular people who have entered.

There have been no changes of any consequence in the list today. The was it stood at noon was as follows:

The votes that have come in today make the following changes:

Harold N. Hatt, Portsmouth Bicycle club, 330

John F. Leahy, A. O. H., 214

Col. John P. Tibbets, Gen. Gilman Marston command, U. V. U., 190

Charles W. Hanscom, K. G. E., 123

William S. Fernald, Chemical Engine Co. No. 5, 118

Dennis J. Lynch, Kearsarge Engine Co., 60

Charles H. Kehoe, M. H. Goodrich Co., 56

Charles D. Varrell, Sagamore S. F. E. Co., 31

John Ham, W. J. Sampson, H. & L. Co., 21

Capt. Horace E. Peverly, Co. B, N. H. N. G., 12

Edwin F. Howe, Warner club, 11

W. J. Kehoe, P. C. O., 8

George Jones, Kearsarge Engine Co., 7

Fred Manson, M. H. Goodrich Co., 5

John A. Harmon, assistant engineer, P. F. D., 2

The conditions of the contest are as follows, a most liberal offer:

The Portsmouth Herald agrees to send three residents of Portsmouth, who are either members of the Portsmouth fire department, a social club or of some secret society, to the Pan-American exposition, pay all their expenses from the time they leave, until they return, including a week in Buffalo, with board and lodging and admission to the exposition daily.

This offer beats anything ever announced by any newspaper in New England, and is so far above the expense and interest of a trip to the national inauguration that it cannot be mentioned in the same class.

The contest will not be restricted to gentlemen but will be open to any lady who is a member of the various secret societies or auxiliary societies in Portsmouth.

The trip will include stop over privileges en route and returning and first class accommodations will be provided. In order that every detail of the grand tour may be properly looked after, the publishers will either send an agent in advance or with the party to make arrangements.

Everybody knows that the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo is to be grander and greater in every way than the World's fair and the visit will be the event of a lifetime.

The contest opened on Monday, March 4, when the first ballot appeared and which will appear daily until June 1, next, the last ballot to appear on the latter date, and the three persons having the greatest number of votes will have the grand privilege that has been offered. The last ballots must be received at the Herald office by 7:30 p. m., on Wednesday June 5, and the results of the contest will be announced at the earliest possible date.

This is an opportunity never before equalled in this section of the country and well worth the attention of everyone eligible for such a trip. Vote early and vote often. Elect yourself.

AT THE NAVY YARD.

Electrician Maby of equipment has been promoted a class.

Pharmacist Isaac N. Hurd, U. S. N. of Kittery, has been detached from the receiving ship Wabash, and ordered to duty at the Boston navy yard.

Rear Admiral B. J. Cromwell, and wife, Lieutenant Sypher, will sail for Southampton on April 3rd, and thence to South America where the former will assume command of the South Atlantic squadron.

"When I wrote to you in March, asking advice as to what to do for myself," says Mrs. McLean Co. Ky., "I was expecting to become a widow. Had been sick for several months. Could not get anything to stay in my system, except water. Had mishaps twice with this one. Had female weakness for several years. My hips back and lower bowels hurt all the time. Had numbness from my hips down. Had severe heart trouble, sprained spine, and was not able to do any work. Had to give up my home. I had a few days, telling me to take a 'Pectoral' prescription. I took three bottles, and before the week was out I was better and before I had taken it a month, I was able to help do my work. On the 27th of May my baby was born, and I was only sick three hours and had an easy time."

"We praise Dr. Pierce's medicine for it has cured me."
